Sunday, September 14, 2014

*To all who are present with us this morning,
Welcome and Blessed Feast Day to you!*

Please join us for coffee and...

in the Fellowship Hall following the Divine Liturgy.

You May Find the Text of the Divine Liturgy beginning on the bottom page 91 of the Service Book (gold embossed cross on the reddish brown cover) or in the green-spiral-bound book; sheet music can be found in the 8.5" x 11" large, spiral-bound booklet.

At the Kiss of Peace, our practice is for each of us to greet the person to our right and left with the bowing of our head, hands held in a prayerful clasp or crossed on the chest, while offering each other the Christian greeting, "Christ is in our midst!" and responding, "He is and shall be!"

Please remember that Holy Communion is reserved for those Chrismated Orthodox Christians who have appropriately prepared themselves through prayer, fasting and Confession to receive the Holy Mysteries of the Church. The bread (anti'doron, which means 'in place' of the gifts) which we share after Communion and at the end of the Liturgy is for all.

Being mindful we are in church, let us always remember to...

...be quiet and attentive. Let us sing, pray, stand., sit, kneel and respond where responses are indicated. Let us not talk, look around, text message, play games, etc. Especially let us work at this in the Communion line and when in line to venerate the Cross and depart. If we cannot hear the post-Communion prayers being chanted during our church departure, we are way too noisy.

...refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum (most obviously and especially if you will be receiving Holy Communion).

...stay put. Except in rare cases, there are few of us who cannot stay in one location for two hours (actually less, for most of us).

SYRIAN CHRISTIAN RELIEF

As the Syrian crisis continues with little change, we continue to accept donations to do what we can to help ease the suffering there. Checks may be written to “St. Michael’s” with the note “Syrian Relief.” The following link to a CBS 60 Minutes program will offer some deeper understanding of what is transpiring:

THE EPISTLE READING

St. Paul to the Corinthians (1Cor 18-24)

BRETHREN, the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the cleverness of the clever I will thwart." Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God.

This year's episcopal visit by His Grace Bishop THOMAS will take place during the celebration of the Great Feast of the Nativity of Christ. His Grace will be with us beginning some time on Monday, December 22. He will depart early in the morning on December 25.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

According to St. John (19:6-11,13-20,25-28,30-35)

LET US ATTEND: At that time, the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death; they led him to Pilate and cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no crime in him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by that law he ought to die, because he has made himself the Son of God." "When Pilate heard these words, he was the more afraid; he entered the praetorium again and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave no answer. Pilate therefore said to him, "You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to crucify you, and power to release you?" Jesus answered him, "You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above." When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gab'batha. Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover; it was about the sixth hour. Pilate said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified.

So they took Jesus and led him away; and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which is called in Hebrew Gol'gotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross; it read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." Many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, and in Latin. Now standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own.

After this Jesus, knowing that all was now fulfilled, said, "It is finished"; and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Since it was the day of Preparation, in order to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the sabbath (for that sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with Jesus; but when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. He who saw it has borne witness his testimony is true.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

At the Antiochian Women's Meeting of this Summer's Parish Life Conference, a suggestion was made for a good book to read to help enliven and deepen our participation in our worship of God in His Divine Services. The book is entitled, Help! I'm Bored in Church, by Father David Smith (available and reasonably priced in our Bookstore).

The Antiochian Women of St. Michael's are planning to host/sponsor gatherings where at each convening we will read through and discuss a chapter or two of Fr. David's book, that God may help us grow and mature in understanding and experience of what we do as worshipping Orthodox Christians.

If you are interested, please help us with the logistics:

Would you participate? If "YES," please tear off the bottom of this page and give it to Dianne Anton (724-691-0319) or Miriam Yazge (724-691-0197).

“For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.” - 1Cor 1:18

The words of St. Paul written above and those that follow in the Epistle Reading of this Great Feast of the Elevation of the Cross, are not likely among our favorites from the Great Apostle. They sound a little confusing, perhaps a bit threatening, and finally, better left alone until he says something more palatable to our spiritual taste. After all, this whole business of ‘the cross’ conjures up distasteful images and we prefer a sweeter biblical diet.

Under just a bit of scrutiny, however, it becomes evident that our beef is not with St. Paul’s expression of a deep understanding of Christian salvation theology, but it is with the our culture’s complete alienation from pain, suffering and death as being essential to our spiritual growth and well-being.

Here’s one example of this style of misunderstanding from everyday life and conversation. Mike says to Mary, “Hi, Mary, how are you today?” Mary replies, “Better than I deserve,” to which Mike decries, “Oh, no. You deserve the best.”

As a generous and loving sentiment from Mike to Mary, this response is what one might expect a friend to give. As an expression of Mary’s deserving good things in this life, Mike exposes the kind of attitude our culture’s world view is happiest with — surface niceties with little undergirding foundation. And while God, and Mike, may have intended “the best” for Mary and the rest of us, we, in our sin, deserve the “wages” of that sin, the natural result of our sin — death.

You see, the benefit to us humans in how Christ saves us by means of the Life-Giving Cross, includes a right understanding of Christ’s restoring work thereon and the necessity of our responding to that work in a fashion that allows it to make a difference in our own lives. As Adam’s death was rooted in his choice (missing the mark), so is our death rooted in ours.

When Christ died on the Cross, He completed in His perfect humanity the restoration of our race to its divine destiny. As the Second Adam, He fulfilled and accomplished on behalf of every human person what the first Adam failed to do — to live in communion with The One who made him. The first Adam made a simple and ignorant choice to live his life apart from the source of his life. This was an impossible choice that by its very nature brought death into play.

In response, the Second Adam, our Lord, God and Savior Jesus Christ, is sent by God the Father out of His love for His creation, to reconcile that broken, dead relationship by doing what the First would or could not. When Christ lives as we all have been called and intended to live, our humanity, the essence and nature that every human being participates in, including the Incarnate Christ, is healed by one Man’s “getting it right.”

The effect of Christ’s assuming and living in our humanity in perfect love and harmony with the Father, is that all of us who share our common human nature are free to choose either life, in the restored humanity of Christ, or death, in a replay of the sin of our first ancestor in the beginning.

Brothers and sisters, let us choose Life. As we gaze upon, bow before and venerate the weapon by which Christ has won our salvation for us — the Life Giving Cross — let us commit to the hard work of understanding this mystery of our salvation, the mystery of God’s Love. Let us strive to focus singularly on this reality, striving to grow in the understanding and living out of what it means for God to have become Man that we might become God.
